Chaldeans & Kaldea

Chaldeans .. Over 7300 Years of A Unique Heritage & A Remarkable Civilization

As evidenced by historical documents and antiquities, Chaldeans, Native Iraqis, are descendants of the Proto-Kaldi who have built three of the earliest cities in southern Mesopotamia around 5300 BC: Eridu, Ur and Uruk (Kulabba) during the Pre-Diluvian Dynasties. Similarly, as indicated by tangible / historical discoveries and Biblical data, the two major States in ancient Mesopotamia were Babylonia / Sumer & Akkad in the south and center of Mesopotamia, and Assyria in the north. Local inhabitants of both States were descendants of the Proto-Kaldi /Proto-Euphratians (Semites). Sumerians, another native Mesopotamian group, shared the land peacefully with the proto-Kaldi. Over time, Sumerians intermingled with the majority of the Chaldean people / Ethnic group.

جبب بختة خلجنة

Although, Chaldeans come under three different designations, they represent one ethnicity. The national / ethnic name of Chaldeans / Chaldae became commonly known after the Proto-Kaldi designation was used by scholars. "Eastern Syriacs" became the name of Chaldeans upon embracing Christianity in the first Century AD. Syriac is derived from the word Suraya / Suryaya that literally means Christian. However, the word Syriac is used because Christianity was brought into Mesopotamia by the disciple St. Thomas through Syria. As for "Aṭuraie" it was derived from the word Aṭurra which denotes Mountain. The name Aṭuraie was adopted by a small percentage of our people who have converted to Nestorianism in the 5th century AD and later on they fled to the mountains of Turkey following the Muslim invasion in the 7th century AD. Those people of the mountain went through dramatic blending with the Indo-Europeans of Turkey and Iran. For political reasons, Aṭuraie abandoned their ancestors' ethnic name (Chaldean).

حيًا عمًا كلدايا

Chaldeans assert through Biblical references that they are descendants of Father Abraham who migrated from Ur of the Kaldees to the promised- land (Gen. 12:1 & Gen. 15:7). Not to mention, the most renowned line of kings and queens: Ga-Ur/Gura, and after the great flood Meshalim, Sargon (first emperor in recorded history), Shamshi Adad I, Hammurabi, Mardukh-Apla-Iddin II / Merodach-Baladan, Napoalpauser, and Nebuchadnezzar II. Ku(g)-bau/Kubaba, the first known Queen in recorded history, as well as Shummuramat / Semiramis the Chaldean born Queen of Assyria who successfully Babylonized Assyria and endorsed Monotheism of worship by recognizing god Nabu (god of writing and knowledge) and son of god of Babylon (Mardukh) as the only true god.

Our people ought to be proud of their forefathers, the founders of the most ancient and sophisticated civilization and the pioneers of human culture. For that reason, Mesopotamia is called the Land Of Firsts, and our Chaldean people the Timeless People

About THE UNTOLD STORY OF NATIVE IRAQIS

تجند أحب الكلدان وأحب أن أقرأ عنهم

A groundbreaking work that further explores the true identity of the indigenous people of Iraq, Chaldean-Mesopotamians is presented in the compelling book titled The Untold Story of Native Iraqis written by author Amer Hanna-Fatuhi.

This book is a tribute to our inspiring Chaldean ancestors, so if you are a concerned Chaldean or a friend, and willing to support Chaldeans, or you have become interested in helping this diehard nation to survive, do not just buy the book for yourself, but buy it and present it to others as a gift. You can also buy it and donate it to a public library. It is also very crucial to send it to your congressman/woman and your senator. Such kindhearted acts may help those officials to be aware of the indigenous people of Iraq and their remarkable history, being the creators of the blueprint for all civilizations, as well as encourage them to protect the Chaldeans who are facing a dark destiny in their own homeland, Iraq, and the neighboring countries where they are displaced.

الأمة التي لا تعرف تاريخها يدركها الهوان وتأتي عليها عاديات الزمان

الكلدان منذ بدء الزمان

يتجاوز هذا البحث الذي هو نتاج أكثر من سنتين من العمل المتواصل وخبرة ما يزيد على ربع قرن من الدراسة والبحث النظري والعمل حدود زاوية النظر التقليدية في تناول التاريخ الكرونولوجي لأمة الكلدانية. يسعى هذا البحث إلى التصدي العلمي لعدد من المفاهيم المغلوطة التي تم تضخيمها وإشاعتها منذ منتصف عقد السبعينات من القرن المنصرم، كما يسعى أيضا إلى تصويب التاريخ الرافدي الذي أمتهنته وأجرتته طروحات التعريب من ناحية وعمومية النظرة الغربية لدى الباحثين التقليديين من ناحية أخرى. أتمنى أن يجد القارئ ضالته في معرفة التاريخ العراقي كما هو، والإطلاع على مشهده الحضاري الموثق بالتاريخ السلافي والثوابت العلمية المتفق عليها منذ مائة ألف عام ق.م حتى الوقت الحاضر. عامر حنا فتوحي

AKITU: Chaldean Babylonian New Year Festival
 The name Akitu is very ancient. In the 3rd Millennium BC, Chaldean ancestors and Sumerians (the population of Babylonia) celebrated a festival dedicated to honor the supreme Babylonian National God Marduk, it was celebrated in the first month of the year April (Nisanu) in Babylonian calendar. Since the festival was celebrated over the first eleven days of the Chaldean Babylonian year, they called it Resh Shattim (Resh d Sha n ta) in the modern Chaldean language = beginning of the year.
