IN LOVING MEMORY OF FR. JACOB YASSO

Aug. 20, 1932 - Dec. 29, 2014

Rev. Jacob O. Yasso was born in a Chaldean village (Telkepe) north of Mesopotamia. After graduating high school, he was sent to Rome / Urbaniana University to pursue his Master's degree in Philosophy and Theology. He was ordained a priest in 1960. In 1964, he was assigned Pastor in Detroit, where he served the community as well as identified the Chaldeans as an ethnic group for the first time. In 1974, Fr. Yasso founded the Chaldean Educational Center of America. He also built the Chaldean

Catholic Sacred Heart Church in 1975. Since 1996, Fr. Yasso hand in hand with the scholar in visual arts and Mesopotamian history, Amer Hanna - Fatuhi, improved the Chaldean Educational Center of America under a new vision and new mission.

Chaldeans & Kaldea

Chaldeans .. Over 7300 Years of Heritage & Civilization

As evidenced by historical documents and antiquities, Chaldeans, Native Iraqis, are descendants of the Proto-Kaldi who have built three of the earliest cities in southern Mesopotamia around 5300 BC: Eridu, Ur and Uruk (Kulabba) during the Pre-Diluvian Dynasties.

Similarly, as indicated by tangible / historical discoveries and Biblical data, the two major States in ancient Mesopotamia were Babylonia / Sumer & Akkad in the south and center of Mesopotamia, and Assyria in the north. Local inhabitants of both States were descendants of the Proto-Kaldi / Proto-Euphratians (Semites). Sumerians, another native Mesopotamian group, shared the land peacefully with the proto-Kaldi. Over time, Sumerians intermingled with the majority of the Chaldean people / Ethnic group.

سنة بنفخة خلجينة

Although, Chaldeans come under three different designations, they represent one ethnicity. The national / ethnic name of Chaldeans / Chaldae became commonly known after the Proto-Kaldi designation was used by scholars. "Eastern Syriacs" became the name of Chaldeans upon embracing Christianity in the first Century AD. Syriac is derived from the word Suraya / Suryaya that literally means Christian. However, the word Syriac is used because Christianity was brought into Mesopotamia by the disciple St. Thomas through Syria. As for "Aṭuraie" it was derived from the word Aṭurra which denotes Mountain. The name Aṭuraie was adopted by a small percentage of our people who have converted to Nestorianism in the 5th century AD and later on they fled to the mountains of Turkey following the Muslim invasion in the 7th century AD. Those people of the mountain went through dramatic blending with the Indo-Europeans of Turkey and Iran. For political reasons, Aṭuraie abandoned their ancestors' ethnic name (Chaldean).

حيا عمنا كلدايا

Chaldeans assert through Biblical references that they are descendants of Father Abraham who migrated from Ur of the Kaldees to the promised- land (Gen. 12:1 & Gen. 15:7). Not to mention, the most renowned line of kings and queens: Ga-Ur/Gura, and after the great flood Meshalim, Sargon (first emperor in recorded history), Shamshi Adad I, Hammurabi, Mardukh-Apla-Iddin II / Merodach-Baladan, Napoalpauser, and Nebuchadnezzar II. Ku(g)-bau/Kubaba, the first known Queen in recorded history, as well as Shummuramat / Semiramis the Chaldean born Queen of Assyria who successfully Babylonized Assyria and endorsed Monotheism of worship by recognizing god Nabu (god of writing and knowledge) and son of god of Babylon (Mardukh) as the only true god.

Our people ought to be proud of their forefathers, the founders of the most ancient and sophisticated civilization and the pioneers of human culture. For that reason, Mesopotamia is called the Land Of Firsts, and our Chaldean people the Timeless People.

SAVE IRAQI CHRISTIANS

SAVE NATIVE IRAQIS FROM GENOCIDE

Regardless of their religious diversity, the indigenous people of Iraq today are facing the fiercest campaign of genocide by the Islamist terrorists. We as civilized nations have to counter this vicious campaign through an awareness crusade to educate the West about the ferocious and savage crimes that the native Iraqis are facing today, especially the Iraqi Christians (predominantly the ethnic Chaldeans 5300BC-present) and their relatives the Mandaean, as well as the Yazidis, who are believed to be descended from the third Babylonians (Kassites). Our solidarity through wearing the blue ribbon in this campaign can contribute to addressing the genocide that is going on in Iraq against this indigenous population.

AKITU: Chaldean Babylonian New Year Festival
 The name Akitu is very ancient. In the 3rd Millennium BC, Chaldean ancestors and Sumerians (the population of Babylonia) celebrated a festival dedicated to honor the supreme Babylonian National God Marduk, it was celebrated in the first month of the year April (Nisanu) in Babylonian calendar. Since the festival was celebrated over the first eleven days of the Chaldean Babylonian year, they called it Resh Shattim (Resh d Sha n ta) in the modern Chaldean language = beginning of the year.

November: Arashamna in old Chaldean CHALDEAN Chronology 5300 BC - Present
 In the first half of the first century AD Chaldeans embraced Christianity and started using the religious name Syriac (Suraya or Suryaya in Chaldean, Siryani in Arabic) to differentiate themselves from other Chaldeans who kept their ancient religion. We owe our veterans a debt we can never fully repay.
